

Why Join?

Being a Friend is a wonderful way to have fun while performing a worthwhile community service.

You can do as little or as much as you choose; however, active participation is always welcomed and encouraged.

This is an organization where you can make a difference, and make many friends.

Please indicate your interest in the following Friends activities and we will contact you with more information:

- Promoting and advocating for the library
- Helping with library events at festivals and other functions
- Planning and assisting with social events such as Quiz Night
- Assisting with fund-raising activities
- Attending monthly meetings

We need you!
Please join us.

Your Library Needs Friends!

Who Are the Friends of Coquitlam Public Library?

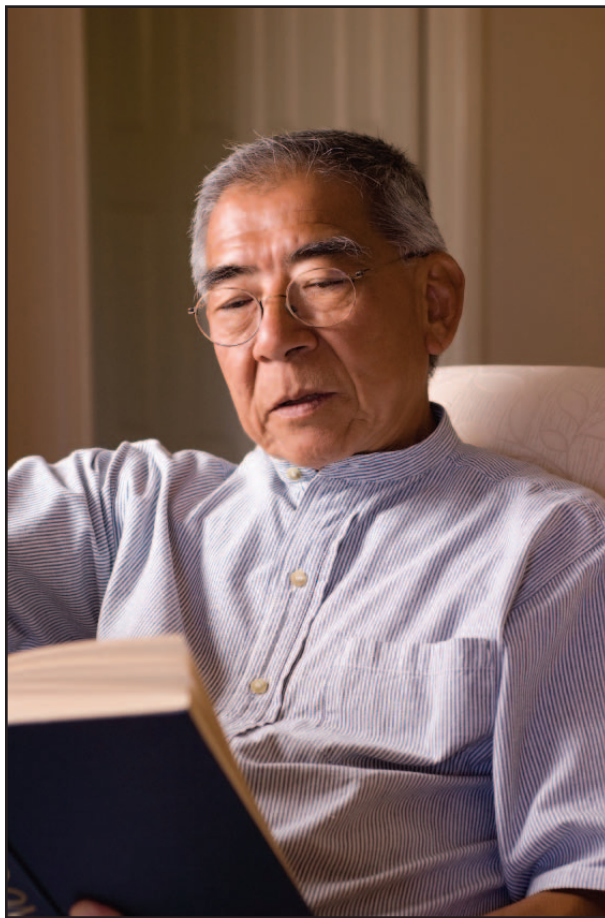

Friends are volunteers who advocate on behalf of the library, encourage reading and the use of the library's facilities, raise needed funds and help in a variety of other ways—while having fun and meeting new people.

What Do Friends Do?

Friends meet once a month to share ideas on how to make our library services better. Through membership dues and fundraising projects we try to make these ideas reality. The Friends also sponsor events and support library projects.

Who Can Join?

Anyone can be a Friend. Our members are people of all ages, from all backgrounds, who share a commitment to promoting and expanding the library and its services.

How Does Your Money Help?

The money raised through membership fees and fund-raising support:

- ▶ library services and programs, including:
 - programs for children and adults
